

RUSI Alternative Energy and Sustainability Workshop Series

The Role of Information Systems

02 December 2009

0930 Registration & Coffee

1000 - 1130 Session One: Keynote Session

Chairperson: Elizabeth Quintana, Head Military Technology & Acquisition, RUSI

Speakers: Farooq Ullah, Policy Analyst, Strategic Assessment, Sustainable Development Commission
'The Role of Green ICT in meeting SOGE Targets'

Catalina McGregor, Founder and Government Deputy Champion Green ICT to the Cabinet Office CIO/CTO Councils
'Greening Government ICT Policy'

Discussion Session

1130 -1100 Morning Tea and Coffee

1130 - 1330 Session Two: Case Studies &

Chairperson: Group Captain Maurice Dixon, Head of Strategy, Sustainable Procurement MoD

Speakers: Emma Fryer, Climate Change Programme, Intellect UK
'Technology For Improved Sustainability'

Tony Rooke, Environmental Development, Logica
'Exploiting IT to Manage and Deliver Reductions in Environmental Impact'

Neil Ellis, Green Technology and Sustainability Manager, Cisco
'Implementing Sustainability Across Cisco'

Ian Watts, Detica (tbc)
'The Importance of Securing Smart Grids and Other Monitoring Services'

1330 – 1430 Lunch

1430 - 1630 Session Three: Break Out Sessions

Each session is one hour long, There will then be a coffee break and the same sessions will be run again. Delegates will therefore have the opportunity to attend 2 sessions

A 'Low Power Solutions for the Deployed Environment'

B 'Aggregating & Downsizing – Maximising the Capabilities of Existing Assets'
Liam Newcombe, Secretary, Data Centre Group, BCS

C 'Energy Management Systems: Smart Grids and HUMS'

D 'Utilising Software to Maximise the Efficiency of Logistics and Organisational Processes'
David Williams, Principal Strategist, Microsoft

1630 - 1700 Feedback from Break Outs & Concluding Comments

Chairperson: Elizabeth Quintana, Head, Military Technology & Acquisition, RUSI with Break Out Session Leaders
